Crimes Against Property Team convicts 63 felons

Sixty-three defendants pled guilty to felony property crimes in Mecklenburg County Superior Court from Monday, February 15, through Friday, February 19, 2010. The defendants entered their pleas in courtroom 5350 before The Honorable Timothy L. Patti, Superior Court Judge. The convictions were for crimes that included breaking or entering, larceny after breaking or entering, breaking or entering a motor vehicle, larceny of a motor vehicle, possession of a stolen motor vehicle and financial crimes. Based on the structured sentencing laws in North Carolina, sentences ranged from probation to Tracy Goodson's active sentence of 101 - 131 months in the North Carolina Department of Correction for felony larceny and being a habitual felon.

Note: Almost all guilty pleas entered in criminal administrative court are the result of an agreed upon plea arrangement between the State and the defendant, which is then approved by the sentencing judge.
