Crimes Against Persons Team Convicts 34 Felons

Thirty-four defendants pled guilty to felonies last week in Mecklenburg County Superior Court. The defendants entered their guilty pleas in administrative courtroom 5310 from Monday, June 29, to Thursday, July 2. The convictions were all for violent felonies which include armed robbery, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, and taking indecent liberties with a child. Based on the structured sentencing laws in North Carolina, sentences ranged from probation to Roderick Barber's active prison sentence of 151-191 months for armed robbery and being a habitual felon.

The week was shortened by a state holiday; court was not in session Friday, July 3.
