Crimes Against Property Team convicts 70 felons

Seventy defendants pled guilty to felony property crimes in Mecklenburg County Superior Court from Monday, November 2, to Friday, November 6. The defendants entered their pleas in courtroom 5350 before The Honorable Yvonne Mims Evans, Superior Court Judge. The convictions were for crimes that included breaking or entering, larceny after breaking or entering, breaking or entering a motor vehicle, larceny of a motor vehicle and possession of a stolen motor vehicle. Based on the structured sentencing laws in North Carolina, sentences ranged from probation to Jay Phifer's active sentence of 70-93 months in the Department of Correction for breaking or entering, larceny after breaking or entering, and being a habitual felon.

Note: Almost all guilty pleas entered in criminal administrative court are the result of an agreed upon plea arrangement between the State and the defendant, which is then approved by the sentencing judge.
