ADA Bill Stetzer recognized by Crime Victims' Coalition

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Assistant District Attorney Bill Stetzer was recognized on April 25, 2012, as Outstanding Criminal Justice Professional 2012 by the Crime Victims' Coalition. The award is given annually to a local criminal justice professional who does outstanding work by “advocating for positive changes in the legal system or positively impacting the lives of crime victims.”

Stetzer received the award at the annual award luncheon sponsored by the Crime Victims' Coalition as part of National Crime Victims' Rights Week. Stetzer began working as an Assistant District Attorney in Mecklenburg County in 2001. On January 1, 2011, Stetzer was appointed as Supervisor of the Homicide Prosecution Team by District Attorney Andrew Murray.
