Crimes Against Property Team convicts 26 defendants

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Twenty-six defendants were convicted of property crimes in Mecklenburg County Superior Court during the week of August 21, 2017. The defendants, who were prosecuted by the District Attorney's Crimes Against Property Team, entered their guilty pleas before The Honorable Yvonne Mims Evans, Superior Court Judge. The convictions were for crimes that included felony breaking or entering, felony financial transaction card fraud and felony larceny.

Among the defendants who were convicted and sent to prison were:

Joseph Phillips, 39, pled guilty to 1) breaking or entering a motor vehicle and 2) felony larceny. He was sentenced to 20-33 months in prison.

Randolph Myles, 47, pled guilty to 1) four counts of felony breaking or entering, 2) common law robbery and 3) second-degree burglary. He was sentenced to 16-29 months in prison.

Jamil Davis, 19, pled guilty to 1) seven counts of felony breaking or entering, 2) contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile and 3) misdemeanor flee to elude arrest with a motor vehicle. He was sentenced to a total of 10-30 months in prison. He was also sentenced to an additional 5-15 months in prison; that sentence was suspended pending his successful completion of 24 months of supervised probation. Davis was ordered to pay restitution to the victims.

Quandarius Funderburk, 18, pled guilty to larceny of a firearm. He was sentenced to 5-15 months in prison.

Sayvon Richardson, 22, pled guilty to possession of a stolen motor vehicle. He was sentenced to 6-17 months in prison.

Derico Misenhaimer, 20, pled guilty to 1) felony breaking or entering, 2) larceny after breaking or entering and 3) felony financial transaction card fraud. He was sentenced to 6-17 months in prison.

Jamario Weathers, 22, pled guilty to 1) felony breaking or entering and 2) larceny after breaking or entering. He was sentenced to 6-17 months in prison.

Note: Almost all guilty pleas entered in criminal administrative court are the result of an agreed upon plea arrangement between the State and the defendant, which is then approved by the sentencing judge.
