Defendant pleads guilty to second-degree murder; receives 48 years

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Jamarr Tremayne Springs, 29, pled guilty to the murder of Pamela Garmon and other related charges. The Honorable F. Lane Williamson, Superior Court Judge, imposed a consecutive sentence that totals 425 to 580 months in prison. The plea was entered on Thursday, November 3, 2011, in courtroom 5350, in Mecklenburg County Superior Court.

Ms. Garmon was shot and killed by the defendant on December 1, 2010, at approximately 10:30 p.m. in a home they shared in North Charlotte. Springs chased Ms. Garmon through their home shooting at her as many as twenty times with an assault rifle. Ms. Garmon died as a result of multiple gunshot wounds. After killing Ms. Garmon, Springs fled to North Lake Mall where he shot at two mall patrons and kidnapped a third who was later released unharmed.
