Habitual break-in offender, habitual thief among 34 convicted

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – The Mecklenburg County District Attorney's Crimes Against Property Team convicted 34 defendants in Superior Court during the week of November 27, 2017. The defendants entered their guilty pleas before The Honorable Yvonne Mims Evans, Superior Court Judge. The convictions were for crimes that included breaking or entering, breaking or entering a motor vehicle, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and felony larceny.

Among the defendants convicted were:

Jamaar Radcliff, 21, pled guilty to 1) three counts of felony breaking or entering and 2) two counts of being a habitual breaking or entering status offender. He was sentenced to 52-88 months in prison.

Lisa Colbert, 51, pled guilty to felony larceny on November 30, 2017. In June 2017, a jury found Colbert guilty of felony habitual misdemeanor larceny, but she could not be sentenced at that time because she failed to return to court during the trial. An order for her arrest was issued. On November 30, Colbert was sentenced for the charges of felony larceny and felony habitual misdemeanor larceny. She was sentenced to 40-66 months in prison.

Travis Tudor, 35, pled guilty to felony larceny. Tudor was sentenced to 12-24 months in prison.

Jamal Miller, 21, pled guilty to 1) felony breaking or entering and 2) possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Miller was sentenced to 12-24 months in prison.

Emya Howard, 19, pled guilty to 1) felony larceny and 2) larceny by anti-theft device. Howard was sentenced to 10-21 months in prison. She was also sentenced to another 10-21 months in prison; that sentence was suspended pending her successful completion of 30 months of supervised probation.

Note: Almost all guilty pleas entered in criminal administrative court are the result of an agreed upon plea arrangement between the State and the defendant, which is then approved by the sentencing judge.
