The way this day turned out all BC you failed to hear me say and pointing in the direction to turn on 85 has been a nightmare!!! You really disappointed me and I'm sure you will find a lie but I'm okay with that. You couldn't really need me with the way you spoke to me, the way you spoke at me and mot def when you felt it was okay to BOX me in my jaw but its okay I see you. I'm still taken from this mess you pulled today but what you fail to realize is that you can't blame this on your TBI under no circumstances ...NONE.... I'm beyond feeling Numb with the mess you do .... We are a money problem for you and an irratant and you make that very clear so I'm cool...I'm awake on all levels and what I do know is that you don't hurt the ONE OR ONES THAT HAVE BEEN THERE FOR YOU....so no, I odn't see that I am of any importance to you nor our children.
